

DIRECT ACTION

URGENT

344 Seven Sisters Road,
N.4.
Sunday, December 21st, 1958.

FRIENDS.

Most of you will have heard that more than twenty of our supporters are to spend Christmas in prison after the rocket base demonstration at Swaffham on Saturday. To cheer and support them many of you may wish to send greetings, or visit them in prison. The names of our supporters in Holloway and Norwich prison are given below.

N.B. Greetings should be on a post card if possible (as all mail has to be censored). It would also help if several people joined together to sign one card.

GIFTS. No gifts should be sent through the post, but sweets, cigarettes and flowers can be handed in.

VISITING. Holloway: 10 - 11.30a.m. daily. 2 - 3.30.p.m. daily. Only three visitors per session all of whom must be admitted together.
Norwich: Visiting every afternoon 2 - 3.30.p.m. " "

All persons arrested are to come before Petty Sessions on December 29th at 10.30.a.m.
